

Fly fishing Program 2012-2013

Coyhaique - Baker River Area 14 day adventure.

Coyhaique has earned a reputation throughout the world as the fly fishing capital of Chilean Patagonia. The area's pristine wilderness is rich with rivers, lakes and streams loaded with beautiful wild trout.

You will fish; Ardillas lake, Fontana lake, Cerro Castillo area, Paloma river, Simpson river, Rio Emperador Guillermo and more.

The Austral Highway will lead our 4x4s through some of the most beautiful scenery that Chilean Patagonia has to offer during our 5-hour journey toward the Rio Baker.

The Baker River is a very large and wild river that can take days to explore itself. It can be fish via Cataract or walk and wade.

The Rio Cochrane is a guide's river since it is Technical and holds huge fish. Many small streams and lakes abound the area as well. Choices are unlimited.
